

2024 Riverfront Festival Dice Run

Saturday, June 8, 2024 • Registration at 8 AM • Cost $28

PARTICIPANT APPLICATION • Due by May 15, 2024

Clearfield Revitalization Corporation announces the 2nd Annual Dice Run! This canoe/kayak event will take place along our beautiful Susquehanna River starting at the Curwensville Community Center and ending at Lower Witmer Park!

- Participants will receive a t-shirt with registration. The first 100 registered and paid participants will receive an additional River Run gift.
- There will be Five total dice rolls. Three stops along the run where you will roll dice at each stop. The participant with the highest total roll will receive $250. The participant with the lowest roll total will receive $100. If you miss a stop along the river (or want a chance at a better roll) you will have the opportunity to buy that roll when you get to the park for $5. You may only purchase ONE ROLL, ONE TIME
- Food vendors will be open in Lower Witmer Park at the end of the River Run so plan to stay and grab some lunch.
- Participants have until 2:00PM to return to the park for the last dice roll.
- Participants are responsible for their own transportation. You will report to the Curwensville Community Center between 8 and 10 AM to register and drop off your kayak/canoe.
- Each participant is required to have the proper safety equipment as required by the Pennsylvania Fish and Boat Commission.
- All participants must sign a waiver during registration.
- Those under the age of 18 are permitted to participate in the River Run. Participants under 18 should remain in visible contact with an adult, over the age of 25, at all times.
